

Woman to Woman: Learn How to Sow Virtue, Reap Honor

Been-there author gives crash course on becoming woman of virtue

NORTHERN, MI—The modern world has twisted the idea of virtue and what a woman is meant to be. As a result, many women are confused about their identity and how to be the “virtuous woman” spoken of in Proverbs 31. In Womenology 101: Embrace Virtue Victoriously (paperback, 978-1-60266-253-7; hardcover, 978-1-60266-254-4), author Claudette Moss gives a crash course in becoming a woman of virtue and explains how God uses women of virtue in powerful and productive ways.

“I am a woman who suffered with my identity for years,” states Moss, who says the word virtue wasn’t in her vocabulary until she became a believer in Christ. Her desire to write a book about womanly virtue stems from the fact that many women do not know what virtue truly stands for today, and that virtue is created in us by God. In Womenology 101, she reveals how.

Author Claudette Moss is a wife, mother, and homeschool mom. She resides with her family in northern Michigan.

Xulon Press, a part of Salem Communications Corporation, is the world’s largest Christian publisher, with more than 3,200 titles published to date. Retailers may order Womenology 101 through Ingram Book Company and/or Spring Arbor Book Distributors. Salem Communications is the country’s leading Christian communications company with interests in radio, Internet, and magazine publishing.

<http://www.claudettemoss.org>